Dermobel

Gentle, protective body care liquid soap.

DESCRIPTION

It is a liquid soap specially formulated for skin care and protection. This product is an excellent choice for daily hygiene, thanks to its active ingredients that protect the skin from the most frequent infections caused by fungi and bacteria. In addition, its pH-neutral formula prevents irritation and allergies, which makes it suitable for sensitive skin and prevents drying.

It is designed for use as a shower gel and shampoo, making it a practical and versatile body care product. Its formula comes as a white viscous liquid, which provides a soft, creamy lather for effective deep cleansing.

One of the advantages is its easy application. It is used neat and is suitable for daily use. For proper body hygiene, simply apply the liquid soap to damp skin and massage gently into a soft, even lather. Then rinse with lukewarm water to remove residue and leave skin clean, soft and protected.

It comes in a 10 kg package or in a box with 15 bags of 1 kg, which allows its use in homes, health care establishments, spas, gyms, among others. In addition, its presentation in liquid format is easy to dose and administer for precise and controlled cleaning.
